

PASSPORTS

CROSSING CULTURAL BORDERS

“Travel is fatal to prejudice, bigotry, and narrow-mindedness.”
~ Mark Twain

THIS PASSPORT BELONGS TO

---

CITIZEN OF THE WORLD

This is your official passport to Cultural Competence.

This passport gives you the opportunity to visit many countries around the world. Your goal is to gather at least one experience in every country.

You may earn a stamp in many ways. Some ideas include:

- Read a book
- Learn a dance
- Sing a song
- Play a game
- Taste a new food
- Attend a fair
- Learn a craft or skill
- Watch a film
- Listen to a story
- Visit a shop or restaurant
- View an exhibit at a museum
- Interview a person from another country
- Learn some words in a new language
- Talk with an 'Ambassador' from another country (see below)

How to Be an Ambassador

If you earn 6 stamps in any country, you can become an Ambassador, a person who has a great deal of knowledge to share.

As an Ambassador you may:

- Answer questions that other students have about your country.
- Organize an event
- Start a club
- Present information to others. There are many ways to present information about your country. For example, you may put on a play, share a song or dance you learned, teaching a lesson about something that you find interesting, create a poster or chart about your country, share some food, teach a new game or craft.
- Suggest ideas to your teachers

Date:

Country:

I read:

Author:

Number of Pages:

Genre:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

I made:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

I tasted:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

I saw:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

I visited:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

I played or did:

3 things I learned:

(1)

(2)

(3)

Also

---

---

---