THE MUSICIANS’ GREEN BOOK: AN ENDURING LEGACY
DECEMBER 1, 8PM

MAKE YOUR SPECIAL YEAR-END GIFT!
See envelope inside or go to opb.org/actnow >
On January 23, 2023, OPB marks its 100th year of service in the Northwest. It’s a milestone worth examining.

OPB started as a physics department experiment in AM radio from the campus of Oregon Agricultural College—now known as Oregon State University. And that radio station is still on the air today!

In 1957, KOAC television began broadcasting, and in the 1970s, we became something more like the OPB you know, with numerous radio and television stations combining to become the Oregon Educational and Public Broadcasting Service. OPB then became a state agency until 1993 when OPB became the independent nonprofit organization we exist as now.

We’ve come a long way, and OPB has adapted as the world has changed.

While broadcasting is still important, families and individuals across our region rely on OPB in many other ways. They rely on news and information from the largest newsroom in the region. They connect with OPB through podcasts, email newsletters, videos, captivating programming and more. The generous support of OPB members like you means that this is all available for free anywhere, at any time in addition to OPB Radio and TV: online, on digital streaming platforms, on social media and on our all-new OPB mobile app.

As you plan your year-end giving, use the pink envelope included in this guide to make your special year-end contribution to OPB. Better yet, make a Sustaining contribution and do even more to ensure the OPB of tomorrow.

We thank you for your support as we embark on the next 100 years of service.

President and CEO
